Photosynthesis

Green plants make glucose from carbon dioxide and water using light energy.

Chlorophyll in the chloroplasts absorbs the light.

Oxygen is released as a by product.

Respiration

Respiration releases energy from glucose in every living cell.

Aerobic respiration uses oxygen and produces carbon dioxide and water.